

Frank Meidl

Director Marketing and Sales, Raven Logistics.

Frank began his rail career with the Chicago & North Western Railroad in 1974. After holding several union jobs in BRAC in Wisconsin for 9 years, he began his Sales career in 1983-1986 as a District Sales Rep in San Francisco. This was followed by Regional Sales Directors jobs in Pittsburgh 1986 – 1988, and Chicago 1988 – 1995. After Union Pacific bought the C&NW in 1995, he moved to Omaha in the UP Marketing Group. In 2000, Frank moved back to Chicago as Director-Sales, where he retired from Union Pacific in 2013 after 38 ½ years of railroad service.

After one year of retirement from the railroad, Frank began working for Raven Logistics, Naples, FL, a 3PL and TMS Technology Company, in July, 2014 and has been there since.

Frank is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin – Madison, and past president of MARS (2008). He also served several times on the Board of Directors for the Traffic Club of Chicago and is currently on the MARS Executive Committee.
