

Wesley Hazlett began his career August 25th, 1968 with the Northern Pacific /Burlington Northern RR. as a switchman and conductor. Wes was promoted to locomotive engineer service in 1979. During the next 30 years he completed certification of Quality Concepts Q90, became a Safety and Rules Trainer in a terminal of 150 employees, worked with Operation Lifesaver as a facilitator and chaired the focus group to make recommendations for improved operations at a facility. He also served on the Willmar terminal safety committee. He retired from the BNSF in 2009 then began his career as a safety consultant with RailSafe Training Inc.