BARBARA WARD WILSON

Barbara is head of the Surface Transportation Team within Wells Fargo Equipment Finance. In this position, Barbara serves as President of Wells Fargo Rail, the rail equipment operating leasing subsidiary of Wells Fargo Bank which owns and leases over 185,000 railcars and 1,800 locomotives. In addition, Barbara manages the Commercial Vehicle Group that leases and finances Commercial Vehicles including tractors, trailers, specialty vehicles and buses. She provides strategic leadership for her Team, and is responsible for implementing long-range goals, strategies, plans and policies.

Prior to joining Wells Fargo in 2013, Barbara worked as the Chief Financial Officer at Helm Financial Corp., a private equity owned firm. Barbara began her career at the Bank of Boston in the Transportation Lending Group and earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Boston College and an MBA from Babson College.
